The pool by night

Hello from the Finca in Sunny Spain
 We hear you also had a lovely summer in the UK this year? Here at the Finca guests enjoyed the pool by day and by night the breezy pool terrace. A trip to the new Tree House (see below) for a night cap at 'Basil's Bar' also proved very popular.

Lazy summer days don't last forever so read on to discover what we have planned for the coming months ...we will hope to welcome you (back) before too long.

In June we had our first 'Summer House Party' which included a visit to the Botanical gardens and a picnic on Mount Maroma via an exciting 4 x 4 drive. One of our guests at the house party was Andrew, who is our most frequent visitor (19 visits and number 20 coming soon!)

Gordon has built the Tree House which has its own honesty bar ('Basil's Bar') It's the perfect place to read, write, paint or just to enjoy the peace.

Walk off Christmas!

Why not shed some winter pounds in 2014 and enjoy some fresh air and fun at the Finca?

We have a multi-level walking holiday 15th – 22nd February – just the antidote to the British winter. The weather is cool but usually good and in the evenings a blazing log fire helps to keep us all cosy.

Bring Your walking Group
 We have great rates available for a private walking group 1st – 8th March or 7th – 15th June
